Advice

"It has been such a relief to find an advisor that actually understands what running a social enterprise is all about, especially in such a specialist area as radio.

I have been impressed by his appropriate advice, immediate feedback and links with the right people. I will be keeping this link with Robert for as long as possible.

I would certainly recommend his services to others that are running a social enterprise or seeking business advice generally."

Dave Hatherly, Wayland Community Radio

"My business has really gathered momentum since meeting Robert. I had been working on ideas that seemed to me to be a little fragmented and without a clear focus.

I came away from that meeting with a clear vision of a business that integrated all my interests under a unified theme that accurately represented my unique approach.

In addition, by having confidence in me, and in my business idea, Robert gave me confidence in myself."
